About The Avalon School

Established in 2003, The Avalon School brings the spirit of adventure and friendship to boys, grades kindergarten through twelve, in an independent day school featuring a challenging liberal arts curriculum. The school seeks to cultivate in its students a sense of intellectual freedom and personal responsibility; to foster the gifts of faith and culture that are within each boy's grasp; and to help them fulfill the deep desire to live a noble life that resides in all men.

NATURAL HISTORY CAMP

Join Mr. Teleki, Mrs. Kolf, Mrs. Ratti, and Gil McPherson in this exciting extension of The Avalon School's Lower School Natural History Curriculum. The program combines classroom instruction with the hands-on learning that boys and girls so love. It provides a fun and safe environment for children to channel their endless energy, while becoming junior entomological experts.

Most camp activities will take place outdoors, including: collection, preservation and classification of insects, hiking, fishing, creek-walking, swimming, and outdoor games. The trip to The Bohrer Park Water Park in Gaithersburg is one of the camp highlights. By the end of their adventure, the campers will have learned to identify a variety of local insects and started a respectable collection of their own.

Open to Boys and Girls, Grades 2-6.

July 8 - July 12

Location: The Avalon School

Mon. - Fri. 9 am - 3 pm

$300 per camper

STRATEGY GAME CAMP (BASIC AND ADVANCED)

A myriad of strategy and table games will engage your child's imagination and executive functions through managing resource production and allocation, diplomacy, problems solving, and even military strategy. Mr Teleki offers a vast collection of games, providing something for every taste; from a 20-minute, light-hearted game about a Martian invasion, to a game of post-plague subsistence farming, to a 5+ hour game of military expansion and domination of the city-states of 16th century Japan. Turn your child's attention from the screen to the faces of his peers. Boredom stands no chance against Mr. Teleki's Strategy Game Camp!

Open to Boys and Girls. Grades 3-12.

Basic: Grades 3-6; July 15 - 19

Advanced: Grades 7 -12; Aug. 12 - 16

Mon. - Fri. 9 am- 3 pm

AVALON LATIN LANGUAGE CAMP

Duc in Altum Latinum! Under Magister Oriani's instruction, your boys will hone their Latin through speaking, reading, and games, and discover daily Roman life through food, sports, and military drills. Each boy will make his own gladius, or Roman short sword. This is a great opportunity to experience Latin outside of the classroom and discover how much life is left in this "dead" language. Campers should have completed at least one year of Latin or must receive special permission from Magister Oriani.*

Open to Boys, Grades 6–10 (Prerequisite: 1 year of Latin).

June 24 - 28

Location: The Avalon School

Monday - Friday: 9am - 3pm

BUDDING WRITERS CAMP

For Lower and Middle Schoolers, this camp with Mr. Kantor aims to get boys writing. The focus will be on thinking, observing, experiencing and then talking and writing about it! Have your boys learn to get words on paper without fear and then perfect and polish what they have written.

The camp will involve all sorts of writing from expository to creative. Writing races, brainstorming, comparative story-telling, descriptions of nature and art and other approaches will aim to get the boys beyond thinking of writing as a chore and begin to get them feeling that it's just as natural as talking.

Open to Boys, Grades 3 - 8.
